SECTION II ANNOUNCEMENTS

Family Members Required to Take Antiterrorism Training

According to U.S. European Command Operations Order 03-11, family members (ages 14 and above) are now required to complete the Department of Defense's online Antiterrorism Level I training program.

The training, which is available at <https://atlevel1.dtic.mil/at/>, is designed to ensure that service members, civilian employees, contractors and family members have a heightened awareness of terrorism and are able to implement personal protective measures into their daily lives.

Training topics include the safe use of public transportation, personal safety when travelling and methods of identifying and reporting security threats.

For more about personal safety and force protection call the U.S. Army Garrison Stuttgart Antiterrorism Office at 421-2860/civ. 0711-729-2860 or e-mail marc.palmer@us.army.mil.

Inspector General Issues

Service members, civilians and local nationals can now submit issues to the Inspector General's office via fax. Visit the U.S. Army Garrison Stuttgart web site <http://www.stuttgart.army.mil/sites/installation/ig.asp> and click the DA 1559 link.

After the document is filled out, fax it to the Inspector General's office at 421-2791/civ. 0711-729-2791.

For more information call 421-2555/2841/civ. 0711-680-2555/2841.

Army Civilian Attitude Survey

Army appropriated and non-appropriated fund civilian employees who have not yet completed the Army Civilian Attitude Survey still have time to complete it. Local nationals will have the opportunity to take the survey soon.

The survey is an opportunity to be heard on issues that directly affect you as a civilian employee. The survey asks questions about leadership and management, job satisfaction, morale, training and development, and other topics. The results of this survey provide attitudes and opinions that will be used to evaluate the effectiveness of Army programs and initiate changes. Participation in the survey is voluntary and responses are confidential.

The survey is available online until Jan. 31, at www.cpol.army.mil/survey/dasurvey and may be taken during normal duty hours.

If you have questions or concerns, please email ArmySurvey@questarweb.com.

TMP Vehicle Justification

All units need to turn in a justification for their recurring TMP Dispatch Vehicle. Annual justifications must be turned in by Jan. 30.

For more information contact Mr. Manfred Lachner at lachnerm@cmtymail.6asg.army.mil.

CONVERSATIONAL GERMAN LANGUAGE CLASSES

30 January - 09 March 2006

The USAG Stuttgart Education Center will conduct conversational German classes in Stuttgart beginning Monday, 30 January 2006. Most classes are conducted 3 hours per day, twice weekly for 5 weeks (30 class hours). NOTE: No class sessions will be held on 20 February (Presidents' Day). Instructors will make arrangements with their classes to visit some Fasching festivity (like a Sunday parade). (If you do NOT know what "Fasching" is, you just might need course 1a!)

- 1a: For absolute beginners. You speak NO German? Welcome here!
 - 1b For students who have had either 1a or some other basic course BEYOND (!) a newcomers' orientation and/or German Headstart.
 - 1c For students who have completed 1a and 1b, and/or have been living "on the economy," possibly including students on a second Germany tour.
 - 1d For advanced students, possibly on a 3rd or 4th Germany tour.
- In diesem Kurs wird fast kein Englisch gesprochen, d.h. Englisch ist verboten!
